HILLTOP ECHOES

1952

*Margaret

Dedication

Standing on the threshold of a new phase of life, our high school days behind us, we, the class of 1952, pause to remember our schoolmates and teachers, who have left us to enter the service of our country. To them, and particularly to our former coach, Zane McCoy, who contributed much to our high school life, we affectionately dedicate this edition of Hilltop Echoes.

Class History

On a cheerful day in September of 1940, twenty-nine eager and talkative students climbed up the hill to Lodi High School to their first days in the halls of learning. Although there were twenty-nine of us, only nine of us are left: Dora Zimmerman, Donna McGarvey, Bill Gossard, Hattie Kline, Jim Yoxheimer, Jr. Warner, Bob Underwood, Sally Blackburn, and George Zimmerman. Miss DeLong was our teacher.

As we flew into the second grade we took Miss DeLong with us. This year we were joined by Earl Ivie.

Mrs. Whitney greeted us in the third grade and Don Sterzer joined us. It seems as though Mrs. Whitney had an affectionate class. One boy took a girl in the cloakroom and kissed her. What about that, Bill Gossard?

Janice Ripley arrived from Chatham in the fourth grade to cause Mrs. Fuller trouble by sitting on top of the desks. Also Jim Yost and Gaylord Pickering joined our ranks.

At last — we were in the fifth and were upstairs. This year it took two teachers to put us through. They were Mrs. Delcamp and Mrs. Seal (Mrs. Grimm). To help make matters worse Stanley Debro arrived to join our happy crowd.

Our sixth year was a big one as we were preparing to enter high school. The thought of changing classes rather frightened us but to soothe us we had Miss Baker (Mrs. Merle Seal). This year Barbara Packard's smiling face was observed.

Our first day in the seventh grade Mr. Sam Mosher met us at the door to usher us through many detention halls and trips to the office. New faces detected in the class were those of Jack Humphrey, Millard Sharp, and Mary Chapman. Mrs. Schafer guarded us every inch with her ruler.

Finally we made the Freshman homeroom. This year Lafayette was saddened by the loss of four students to Lodi. They were Jeanette White, Don Sanford, Irene Farnsworth, and Joan Kindig. Mr. Quayle led us to victory in the float contest.

Steadily we climbed and steadily our class increased. To help us along this year Ruth Mooney and John Schall joined us. Mr. Wegruff got us through this, our Sophomore year.

It seems Mr. Wegruff liked our class or maybe he was the only one who could tame us down, anyway he went right along with us to help us through a big and memorable Junior year. He also guided us to the first prize in the float contest. The theme of our float was Indians — I guess that is what he thought we were. Maynard Sowers joined us to help sell refreshments at football and basketball games, pencils with football and basketball schedules on them and sell sweat shirts with a Lodi emblem on them. All this plus the proceeds from our class play, M'liss, directed by Mrs. Eastman, went for the big affair of the year, our Junior and Senior Banquet held at Mazena's on May 5.

SENIORS! The big year at last! To add to the fun and excitement nine new members were added. They are Bob Arters, Eleanor Jorgensen, Bill Wesolek, and Don Hall from Chatham; Patty Jellison, Jim Locke and Jeanne McBride from West Salem; and Flossie Thompson from Grove City. It sure has been fun having you with us even though it has been for such a short time. We presented our Senior Class Play, "Don't Blame Me," under the direction of Miss Sechrist, our class advisor. To make money for our Senior trip to be taken in May, we sold vanilla and had a bake sale.

We have had a wonderful time this year and I guess we all rather hate to leave dear old L.H.S. But some day we all hope to see each other again and talk over old times and all our fun in high school.

The last echo of the Class of '52 to be heard in the halls of L.H.S. was May 29, 1952, at the Commencement exercises; however, this is not the last to be heard of them in the world.

The Last Will and Testament of The Class of 1952

We, the Senior Class of 1952, being of sound mind (that is somewhat doubtful), do solemnly swear this to be our last will and testament. We, the party of the first part, do bequeath the following to the parties of the second part herein named.

SECTION I

- | | |
|--------------|---|
| ARTICLE I | We, the members of the Senior Class leave the school (though it is not quite in the condition we found it), to our fellow students. |
| ARTICLE II | To Mr. Wood, we leave our Government books, slightly used (but not by us). |
| ARTICLE III | To Mr. Skurvid, we leave a subscription of Hot Rod magazine for next year's Driving Class. Also the pleasant (?) memory of our smiling faces, coming into the office for excuse blanks for tardiness. |
| ARTICLE IV | To Miss Sechrist, WE LEAVE! |
| ARTICLE V | To the remainder of the faculty, we leave the happy thought of quietness (at last) in the halls of L. H. S. |
| ARTICLE VI | To the Junior Class, we leave the volume of "How to Make Money In a Hurry." Make good use of it. |
| ARTICLE VII | To the Sophomore Class, we leave a volume of the "Seniors' Favorite Parking Places," in hopes that they have as much fun as we did. |
| ARTICLE VIII | To the Freshman Class, we bequeath all the good luck and success sure to come in the future. |

SECTION II

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| ARTICLE I | Bob Arters wills his basketball ability to Dick Roberts. Good luck, Dick. |
| ARTICLE II | Sally Blackburn wills her piano playing jobs to Bonnie Botdorf. Hope you have as much fun as Sal did, Bonnie. |
| ARTICLE III | Mary Chapman wills her ability to talk so much in Senior English Class to Fairy Johnson, in hopes that she has as much fun as Mary did. |

- ARTICLE IV "Doc" Debro wills his great height to Wayne Sharp, just in case Wayne's runs out.
- ARTICLE V Irene Farnsworth wills her many admirers to her sister, Evelyn, who, we think, already has a good start.
- ARTICLE VI Bill Gossard wills his red hair to Ken Hunt. Now you won't have to dye your hair, Ken.
- ARTICLE VII Chub Hall wills his "Bad Influence" to Russ Weaver. (Careful tho, Russ.)
- ARTICLE VIII Jack Humphery wills his quietness to Larry Davis, who could sure use a little.
- ARTICLE IX "Chick" Ivie wills her ability to drive a car (especially on the top), to "Corky" Miller. It seems Cork has a fairly good start already.
- ARTICLE X Eleanor Jorgensen wills her ability to skip school and get away with it to anyone who cares to try.
- ARTICLE XI Patty Jellison wills her flirtatious ways to Linda Johnson, who, it seems, is already doing pretty well. Also her basketball ability to anyone who enjoys sprained ankles.
- ARTICLE XII Joan Kindig wills her "Hot Rod" driving to Chuck Scott. Happy Hot Rodding, Chuck! Also her front seat in Govt. to anyone who is good at ducking flying hands.
- ARTICLE XIII Hattie Klinect wills her Hot Rod to Mr. Skurvid's driving class and hopes it will help him in the future.
- ARTICLE XIV Jim Locke wills his curly locks to Jackie Gossard. Also his ability to haul five people in his "coup" to John Warner who does pretty well already.
- ARTICLE XV Jeanne McBride wills her ability to skip Scriven's study hall (and get caught) to anyone who happens to like Detention Hall Slips.
- ARTICLE XVI Donna McGarvey wills her ability to get good grades without studying to Barbara Brainard, in hopes that Barb can do it as well.
- ARTICLE XVII Ruth Mooney wills her typing ability to Charles Snell, the two fingered wonder.

- ARTICLE XVIII Barbara Packard wills her singing ability to anyone who likes sour notes.
- ARTICLE XXIX Gaylord Pickering wills his "Blue Streak" to anyone who would enjoy fixing it up.
- ARTICLE XX Janice Ripley wills her ability to always have a houseful of kids to anyone who is working their way up to a nervous breakdown.
- ARTICLE XXI Don Sanford wills his art ability to anyone who likes to draw.
- ARTICLE XXII John Schall wills his ability to get back suspended driver's license to Johnny Warner. (Be sure to always keep a duplicate on hand, Johnny.)
- ARTICLE XXIII Millard Sharp wills his bicycle to Fred Rice so Fred can peddle to West Salem and knock over corn shocks. (Save fenders and money that way, Fred.)
- ARTICLE XXIV Maynard Sowers wills his bashfulness to Bill Dewey, who doesn't know what the word bashful means.
- ARTICLE XXV Don Sterzer wills his ability to get into trouble with all the teachers to anyone who thinks they can do as good a job as Don did.
- ARTICLE XXVI Flossie Thompson wills her ability to get away with as much as she has to anyone who thinks they can do it.
- ARTICLE XXVII Bob Underwood wills his ability to sit in the Junior Section in Assembly to any next year's Senior who may find it convenient.
- ARTICLE XXVIII Jr. Warner wills his ability to get good (?) grades in Science to his sister, Patty.
- ARTICLE XXIX Bill Wesolek wills his way with Mrs. Schaffer to George Benson, who we think will need it.
- ARTICLE XXX Jeanette White wills her cheerleading ability to Sharon Martin in hopes she has as much fun as Net did.
- ARTICLE XXXI Jim Yost wills his quiet ways to Bum Farnsworth as she could use them.
- ARTICLE XXXII Jim Yoxtheimer wills his ability to taxi the Senior girls around to Stanton Love.

ARTICLE XXXIII Dodie Zimmerman wills her ability to skip last period and go to the show on Tuesday afternoon to anyone who doesn't happen to like that study hall.

ARTICLE XXXIV George Zimmerman wills his ability to sleep in Gov't to Prem Sampsel. (Be sure to get a back seat, Prem.)

May 30, 1962
Leroy, Ohio

Dear Joan,

I thought that while my two boys were asleep I'd write and tell you all about the big reunion the Class of '52 had.

We were all very sorry that you could not be with us as you were in Washington in a very important conference with the President.

Bob Arters was one of the first to arrive. He tells me that he is now playing professional football with the Cleveland Browns.

Next to arrive was Mary Chapman Schar. Mary is now one of the most prominent businesswomen in the city of Lodi. She is manager of Motor Cargo.

On the outskirts of Lodi I saw several large signs pointing the way to Stanley Debro's large group of farms.

As I arrived at the Community Park I saw a familiar looking group of faces. As I went closer I discovered the faces belonged to Irene Farnsworth, Bill Gossard, Chub Hall, and Eleanor Jorgensen. Irene is now Secretary to the owner of the Cleveland Browns. Wonder why?!? Bill Gossard has made so much money flying Jet Planes that he can afford to take several trips a year to the Hawaiian Islands. Wonder what he has discovered down there? Chub really picked a rough vocation. He is now a professional wrestler. Eleanor is working in the Cadillac plant. Guess what kind of a car she is driving. (A brand new '62 Chevy.)

As I was talking to Eleanor, Jack Humphrey joined us. He now owns the Westfield Inn at Leroy.

As we were talking about Jack's Inn I noticed a particularly handsome Navy Officer coming across the park toward us. As he came closer we saw that it was Chick Ivie. He is making a career of the Navy and is doing very well. He is now an Admiral.

I was surprised to see Jim Locke there as he is now owner and manager of "Poppa Jim's Flop House and Hamburger Joint" and is very busy.

As I was chatting with Jim I looked up and thru a shower of stones and a cloud of dust I saw Hattie Kline arrive. Hattie is now racing Stock Cars at the Barberton Speedway and is known throughout the country as "Hot Rod Hattie."

Jeanne McBride Shaw was there. She is now giving piano lessons between caring for her three children.

Jeanne and I walked over to another small group of people. We found in this group Donna McGarvey, Ruth Mooney, Millard Sharp, and Maynard Sowers. Donna and Ruthie are now running the most exclusive Dude Ranch in the wide open spaces of Texas. As Millard is now Senator of Ohio you have probably run into him many times in Washington. Maynard is now playing professional basketball.

As we were all talking over old times Mr. and Mrs. John Schall (Barbara Packard) arrived. They run a Garage and Lunch Room. John fixes the cars and Barb cooks the food.

Gaylord Pickering and Jim Yoxthierner arrived together. They are partners in "The Mottie Fixit Shop." They always were interested in motorcycles.

Be sure to see Walt Disney's latest picture, "The Three Little Pigs." The scenic backgrounds were drawn by our former classmate, Don Sanford.

As I was talking with some of the girls I noticed a bright red convertible drive in, it was Flossie Thompson. She now owns her own Beauty Shop. We noticed that her car had the new crush-proof fenders on it. As you know those fenders were invented by Don Sterzer.

Right behind Flossie was Bob Underwood. Bob now owns the big Sohio station on the corner of Bank and Elyria Streets. He delights in giving the orders now instead of receiving them.

Next to arrive was Bill Wesolek. Bill is now a teacher. Back in school he always did know more than the teachers, so he said.

Jim Yost was there. He is now Editor of the Akron Beacon Journal. I guess his paper route finally paid off.

Dodie and George Zimmerman stuck together. They are now famous dancers. I hear they took the place of Fred Astaire and his sister.

I was talking to Janice Ripley and she tells me that she is now running a Tourist Home. Now she is getting paid for having a houseful of people instead of just a headache.

Jr. Warner sat right across the table from us. He now owns the best Dry Cleaning Plant in Lodi. Remember when Jr. used to take off last period everyday to go load his truck and just barely make it back in time to check out?

The last to arrive (as usual) was Jeanette White and Sally Blackburn Weitzel. Sal and Net now own the "Exclusive Sweater Shoppe." It is located on Fifth Ave. in New York City.

Haven't things changed? It seems like only yesterday that we were in school. The memories of those days will be with me always. What fun we used to have, and what uproars we caused!

The Class of '52 has quieted down a good bit. Could it be caused by the passing of time?

It was too bad you could not have been there for we all had a wonderful day together and hated to leave and go back to our various walks of life, for who knows when we shall all be together again.

Well, Joan, Dick just came home and the boys are awake so I must close and start dinner.

I'll be seeing you.

Love,
Patty

To the class of 1953, we seniors wish lots of luck and loads of success.

This year the Junior Class sold refreshments at the football games; and sold pencils with the basketball schedules on them and above all put on the very fine play, "It's Never Too Late."

We know they will do very well next year as Seniors.

Since 1942, Lodi has been enrolled as a chapter of the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools. The purpose of the organization is to recognize students who are outstanding in scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Only a specified percentage, according to national standards, of the upper three classes may be chosen. The student is chosen by the faculty. He must maintain an average grade of "B" in all subjects, and have attended Lodi High School one year previous to initiation.

The chief project of the year is the sponsoring of Homecoming, which includes the coronation of the Queen and a dance following the game.

This being Lodi's first year of 11 man football the Tigers had a good year. It was a rough and hard fought season, but the boys improved very much as the year went by. The Tigers lose 11 Seniors through graduation this year, but they are looking forward to another good season next year.

Bob Arters was elected by his teammates as Honorary Captain of the year.

The Tigers began a slow basketball season this year. They lost the first two and won their first game with Sullivan by one point. The team won about half of their games and got beaten in the first tournament game with Homer. Despite the trouble some of the boys had staying eligible, the Tigers turned out a fair season.
